Jack Lyman focuses his practice on environmental transaction support, with emphasis on the Clean Air Act, NEPA, the Clean Water Act, TSCA, and CERCLA.

Jack Lyman is a Senior Associate in Marten's Washington, D.C. office. He counsels clients on a wide range of federal and state environmental laws, including the Renewable Fuel Standard and Refinery Sector rule under the Clean Air Act, NEPA, Section 7 of the Endangered Species Act, Section 404 of the Clean Water Act, the Toxic Substances Control Act, and CERCLA.

Prior to Marten, Jack worked in private practice, and began his career as a trial attorney through the honors program at the Department of Justice's natural resources division in the environmental enforcement section. Jack earned his J.D. at the University of North Carolina School of Law, and earned his B.A. at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.
